MATHEWSON TO RUN FOR RUMSFELD'S CONGRESSIONAL SEAT

Joe Mathewson, 35, former press secretary to Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Congress in the 13th District, a seat being vacated by Rep. Donald Rumsfeld.

A veteral and community leader, Mathewson is remembered by many for his award-winning work as newscaster-reporter-writer with CBS in Chicago. As a reporter with the Wall Street Journal, he covered the Chicago, New York and Washington scene, giving particular emphasis to the Congress and the Supreme Court.

Mathewson's studies in international affairs include Dartmouth College, where he earned a Phi Beta Kappa key, as well as intensive work in Europe at the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies.

He is married to the former Mary Ingalls of River Forest, and they have four children, ranging in age from 12 to 5.

One of the Strangest Hunting Stories Ever Told - - A World Famed Hunter Attacks a Most Unusual Quarry

By John A. Hunt

ay John A. clins?

A good many hair-raising hun ing stories are told around campliers and over after-dinner coffee. Stories are swapped of Feroclous will animals eaptured or killed after spine-chilling brushes with death. But here is truly one of the strangest hunting stories I've ever heard. And it is a true one, to-the story tabled a most unsuand quarticle.

SERVICE REVIEW

MACHINISTS BORING MILL OPERATORS

We feel that there are some talented people out there who are looking for a great company to work with. We need employees in these fields to assist us in the manufacture of custom machine tools. Our rapidly growing company manufactures the exotic electro chemical machines of the future. Come help us grow. We offer excellent salaries, progressive raises, fine fringe benefits and a good solid future.
